Attorney General Darrell McGraw Honors Krystal Saunders, National Award Winner of the National Foundation for Credit Counseling's Poster Contest

Charleston, W.Va. -- Jill Miles, Deputy Attorney General from West Virginia Attorney General Darrell McGraw's Consumer Protection Division, honored McKinley Middle School seventh grader, Krystal Saunders, with a Consumer Credit Czar At-Large award. This award highlights Saunders national first place prize for designing an award winning poster.

Miles was invited by Consumer Credit Counseling of Southern West Virginia to judge the poster entries at the state level. She picked Saunders poster to advance to the national level.

Among fifteen hundred entries nation wide, Saunders was bestowed top honor and took the national competitions first place prize. The competition theme was to "Plant the Seed of Saving to Grow Your Future." This contest was to design a poster that would educate and build awareness with young people on sound money management and financial responsibility.

Saunders grand prize is a five-hundred dollar savings bond and an all expense paid trip to Washington, DC to receive her award. She will have lunch with Senators Byrd, Rockefeller, and Congresswoman, Shelley Moore Capito, among others.
